

1 = a (the word “cluss” is repeated)

2 = b (it’s the longest)

3 = c (“usually” is more often correct than “all” “always” and “no”)

4 = d (“an” in the stem implies the answer will begin with a vowel)

5 = a (“are” implies more than one reason)

6 = b (“vost” is in all the others)

7 = c (the answer to 4 gives this one away)

8 = d (the pattern of responses goes a, b, c, d)

Source: From Practice with Student-Involved Classroom Assessment (p. 126), by J. A. Arter & K. U. Busick, 2001, Portland, OR: Assessment Training Institute. Copyright © 2006, 2001 by Educational Testing Service. Reprinted by permission.