

PFHS Seniors Receive $5.45 Million in Scholarships

Members of the Post Falls High School Senior Class have been offered $5,445,235 in scholarships from colleges and universities. This is a record amount of scholarship money. The class includes National Merit Scholar, Megan Dewitt. Kaytlyn Brenneman is the valedictorian with a 4.36 grade point average. Savannah Bravo and Alexis Young are co-salutatorians. The following is a sampling of scholarship offers:

Jena Austin	State University Scholarship	$72,000
Miranda Bailey	Montana State University	$48,000
Kaytlyn Brenneman	Eastern Michigan University	$26,000
Cody Cantrell	James Town University	$10,000
Jayne Cord	Johnson and Wales University	$10,000
Grace Connery	Whitworth University	$72,000
Ashley Dewitt	National Merit Scholarship	$98,000
Cierra Foster	Oklahoma City University	$44,000
Bradly Fickett	Lionel Hampton Sch of Music	$8,000
Kaitlin Laramie	North Idaho College	$1,000
Justin Lyon	Abilene Christian University	$63,200
Amberlea Lewis	University of Oregon	$36,000
Myrisa Laufenberg	University of Portland	$92,000
Mikayla Melchert	University of Arizona	$20,000
Landon Rice	Pepperdine University	$65,200
Hope Newman	Boys and Girls Club	$3,500
Christopher Ransdell	Carroll College	$66,384
Kami Root	Washington State University	$40,000
Pedro Romero	Reverse Job Fair	$1,000
Rylee Schneider	University of Idaho	$16,000
Trevor Tainter	University of Nevada Las Vegas	$45,680
Kiana Thoreson	The Boston Conservatory	$140,000
Kayla Tremblay	Post Falls Rotary Club	$1,000
Abbey Turpin	ID Youth Ranch Achievement	$4,000
Taegan Williams	University of Montana-WUE	$60,000
Jessica Zazuetta	University of Idaho	$6,000